FROM THE CENTER SEAT

I am sure that others will send me articles on the great time they had at the Region 2 Summit that was held in Columbus on 12-14 March! It was fun but for this very exhausted Summit Chair I am glad it is over! Picking out one particular event that was best is hard. Events such as the pie auction, in which $367 was raised, or the excellent banquet, or even the trip to the Space Science Center for a Voyage to Mars all received praise from those attending the Summit. Then there was the reaction of the representatives from Claws and Paws, the Summit charity, to our $650 donation! It was pure joy for they were not expecting such a generous donation.

During the awards ceremony, the DaVinci took home a few certificates. A Barbara Paul Superior Performance Award went to me and the DaVinci won the Overseas Coupon Program award for the highest total coupons donated in the Region. The DaVinci also took home an award for perfect Monthly Status Report reporting.

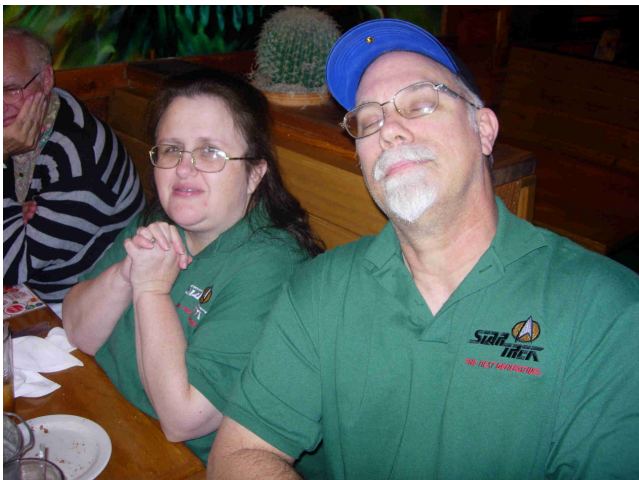

Anyway on to the other thoughts but first a BIG Bajoran thanks to the following folks who attended the Summit: Russell and Diane, Randy and Sandy, Joe, Hal, Connie and Ariana, Shane, and Dutch.

Look like another DaVinci party was a bust! Only one person actually emailed me saying they were planning on attending our 14th anniversary party on 20 March. For those of you without email, I did call and leave a message. I received no returned calls. Folks, you need to pay closer attention to the newsletter and to email sent from me. I schedule these events far enough in the future so that you can make plans. For all DaVinci events, I need to know how many plan on attending so that whatever supplies are needed can be bought (pizza, turkey, ham, hotdogs, burgers, and such).

Our March Night Out at Texas Roadhouse attracted 11 DaVinci personnel. The food was good and the company even better. Take a look at some shots from the evening!

Jeff and mom, Martha, drove from Moreland just to be with us (and to deliver those 7,000 tabs!).

Russell (no he is not asleep!) and Diane.

Shane and the over-excited Joe!

The crew on the left side.

And the crew on the right side!

A BIG Bajoran thanks to all who attended the March Night Out. Save up your Latinum folks because in April our Night Out will be at the Outback Steakhouse, the first time we will have met there.

VADM Freddy Heller

EXECUTIVELY SPEAKING

Diane and I had a wonderful time at the R2 Summit in Columbus, GA this year. We got to see many of our friends from throughout the region and make some new ones as well. The fellowship mixer at Golden Corral on Friday evening was delicious and even though our fearless Commander of Starfleet, Sal Lizard, had travel problems with his fight, thereby missing his own dinner, everyone seemed to enjoy themselves.

As a matter of fact I wrote a little song sung to the tune "Leaving On a Jet Plane":

Oh, our bags were packed, off to Summit we go
We're in Columbus, at the Holiday Inn
I have to say, we all had lots of fun

But Sunday came, with all those tears
Our time was up, until next year's
Summit comes again, won't you come then

So join us and go with us
Don't miss the great times with us
Try one, and you'll never be the same
'Cause it was Summit, in Columbus
Don't know who came by plane or bus
Next year, we'll be in Florida.

Anyway, Saturday started off, of course, with the opening ceremonies. Technical difficulties did not allow for the showing of what I understand would have been a spectacular Chapter Logo presentation, but that's modern technology for you. Panels were scheduled and attended all day. Several of us went to Ryan's for lunch and continued the remainder of the day involved in various activities as well. The best part of the whole weekend was undoubtedly the Charity Pie Auction. That was well worth the over $300 given to see Sal Lizard and Jack Eaton receive the "pie." Saturday evening brought with it the annual banquet and awards presentations. Freddy won a Superior Performance Award and the DaVinci won the OCP Award for over $10,000 in coupon collection. Ariana was presented with some Cadet oriented certificates as well.

OK, then, for those folks that were able to work in the time change and still make it to the morning service at 8:00 AM I thank you. In fact, I wish to give a personal thank you to all that attended which turned out to be all members of the DaVinci.

Closing ceremonies are always sad since we don't get to see a lot of our friends again until next year but all the hugs and tears are what draws everyone even closer together in our happy Starfleet family. Many blessings to all the members of the USS DaVinci that took the time out from their busy "real-life" to participate in the Summit.

Until next time, Warp 10!

COMM Russell Ruhland

COLUMBUS COMIC CON

On February 28 the second Columbus Comic Book Convention was held at the Coca-Cola Space Science Center in beautiful Uptown Columbus. Dutch and his cohorts had a good variety of comics and concession vendors and also various exhibits for all to see. The convention started at 11:00 AM. I was the first one there. Dutch was working the various cadres on site to provide all a good place to engage the public's interest. Dutch, Melanie, and I set up the dynamite DaVinci table in record time. Dutch placed the tablecloth and even showed us a few pointers and various little telescopes that the children can make.

Shortly after the doors opened Joe arrived at the convention to lend me a hand. Joe really entertained the public with his divine insight, various knowledge, and fascinating information on gaming and on the DaVinci. Joe was a lifesaver, in that he is such a great subject matter expert. He gave lots of insight to various folks attending the event. Some were interested in possibly attending DaVinci meetings and events in the future. Joe was such a blessing to my eyes into a lot of things; for which I am very thankful.

Joe and Shane at the Columbus Comic Book Show!

As the day progressed Randy and Sandy came down to give a hand. Randy had some old trinkets and Star Trek comics that he showed the public. A few people even received an old copy of the Star Trek Series from Randy. Randy brought a big smile to many children as they walked by.

MEMORIES FROM SUMMITT

Randy and Joe man the DaVinci table.

The Kirkland's also came down to spend the day at the DaVinci table. I was glad that I was not alone. Their Star Trek II series uniforms were definitely a cool to see.

Jeff (in his movie uniform), Martha, and Randy at the DaVinci table.

All in all the day was a blessed one. We had a couple of people interested in the USS DaVinci's mission to not letting "inaction spoil the intellect" and have fun. Tired, we all left around 4 PM.

VIEW FROM TEN FORWARD

I would like to extend a thank-you to everyone that participated in the Columbus Comic Book Show. We had a good turn out for our little show. Next year the event will be held on Sunday February 27th 2011.

Start planning for our next Columbus Sci-Fi Con to be held on Saturday September 25th from 10:00 AM-6:00 PM. I have a great idea for a membership drive for this event.

Lastly, if anyone has any ideas about a Dinner and a Movie for us at the CSU Space Science Center just drop me an email (dutch@ccssc.org) or you can call me at (706) 649-1477. The movie, if on a Friday or Saturday night, would have to start at 9:00 PM so dinner would be at 7:00 PM.

TABULATIONS

The goal for this year, given that some of you have pretty good contacts, will be 130,000 tabs! The Top Tabber will still get to pie both the CO and XO. Anyone who donates 15,000 tabs (up from 10,000 last year) will get to pie either the CO or XO. So start collecting those small pieces of aluminum today! We have a long way to go!

Well, Jeff has done it again! Just days after Connie gave me 3000 tabs to make her total 6557 Jeff drops off 7000 tabs at the Night Out! BUT! Connie comes back from school the next day with 1500 more and regains the lead! The gauntlet has been thrown! It looks like a battle has begun! Is there anyone lurking in the shadows? Only time will tell!

Here are the totals as of press time:

| | |
|-----------------|--------------|
| Connie Heller | 8204 |
| Jeff Kirkland | 7000 |
| Karen Pynenburg | 2250 |
| Freddy Heller | 1852 |
| Dutch Cummings | 1245 |
| Total | 20791 |

NIGHT OUT LOCATIONS

Below are the 2010 Night Out locations as selected by the crew at last year's Christmas Party. I hope your favorite restaurant made the list!

Congratulations to Freddy Heller, the winner of the free dinner at Texas Roadhouse during the March Night Out. OOPS! This makes the third month in a row that a Heller has won and a second time Freddy has won. Hummmmm, perhaps someone else should be drawing the names besides Ariana!

2010 HALLMARK ORNAMENTS

Here is a sneak-peak at the Hallmark 2010 Christmas ornaments.

It looks like Hallmark's new Christmas ornaments will be the Enterprise from the 2009 movie, an "Amok Time" diorama with Kirk and Spock, and a standing original series James T. Kirk figure (with Phaser). The "Amok Time" ornament will probably have a sound chip and the Enterprise will probably light-up

Stay tuned for better pictures!

"Blood Ties, Complete Series (6th)
"Hercules, Season 1" (20th)

TOP 8 SPACE TRAVEL HASSELS

8. Ceiling seating is available, but your head is always in somebody's lap;
7. Due to the overlap in the Space-Time Continuum, they lost your bags before you even left home;
6. You always have to buy an extra seat for your pseudopod;
5. Klingons make lousy flight attendants;
4. It's bring your pet to work day, so Admiral Archer's beagle is directing all incoming Earth space traffic;
3. There are no words to describe how horrible a body cavity search is, and yet somehow, it's much worse when the security guard has suction cups tentacles;
2. Zero G lavatories make it that much more difficult to join the million mile high club; and, the number one hassle:
1. With space travel, sometimes the food eats you.
