UPCOMING EVENTS

16 April, Away Mission to the Georgia Renaissance Festival; Time and Location to meet TBD

18 April, Night Out at Red Lobster at Columbus Park Crossing, 7:00 PM

FROM THE CENTER SEAT

Greetings from your new Commanding Officer. It is my sincere hope that I can serve the office of Ship's Captain in a way that will provide for the needs of the many; that of course being you, the members of this great and growing chapter of Starfleet. In the weeks to come, I would like to hear from all of you with regard to your input on the areas you believe we can continue to grow and also any ideas you may have on new activities you would like to participate in as a group or even possible changes to current regularly scheduled annual activities that might make them more inviting and exciting. In addition, I am totally open for suggestions on a new meeting place with kitchen and dining/meeting space that can accommodate some of our larger events. You can contact me directly if you desire at 334-298-3998 or by email at trekchristian@gmail.com.

Speaking of larger events, the Captain's yacht departed the DaVinci shuttle bay on Thursday, 10 March around 2:00 PM for Tampa, FL for the 2011 Region 2 Summit. Setting aside minor navigational errors as we traveled through Albany, GA, Diane and I managed to get back on the right flight plan and landed safely on Planet Tampa around 10:00 PM that evening. Also in attendance from the DaVinci were Cami, her three daughters Jadzia, Inara, and Anya, and Cami's brother James!

Breakfast at the hotel's cafe was excellent and we proceeded to take a look at some of the local area surroundings throughout the day until more of the summit attendees arrived later in the afternoon. After lunch and a few purchases at the local mall, we went back to the hotel to rest awhile and then proceeded to the registration table to get our badges. Registration went very smoothly and we got to greet many of our Region 2 family not seen since last year's summit and some folks even longer than that.

Another short rest period followed and then it was off to the Fleet Admiral's dinner which was held at a local China Buffet just around the corner from the hotel. I can't say for certain how other folks felt, but I was full when we were through.

Saturday morning commenced with a small breakfast buffet courtesy of the summit staff and then off to the Museum of Science and Industry (MOSI) two blocks down the street for opening ceremonies and other various summit activities.

The DaVinci was awarded a certificate for consecutive on-time MSR (Monthly Status Report) submissions during 2010. Many thanks to Freddy for his initiative in getting the reports sent to Starfleet Operations on time every month.

Our RC, Jack Eaton, actually wore a Starfleet uniform to opening ceremonies as opposed to his usual beachwear although he did still wear the famous bear feet slippers. Our newest Fleet Admiral and Commander of Starfleet, Dave Blaser, was in attendance as well and even he wore a uniform. Hey, y'all don't know what you're missing by not coming to these events! Reed Bates, RC of Region 3 was a guest at our summit and gave everyone a bit of a "heads up" on 2012's combined R2/R3 Summit which will be held in March at a location about 1/2 hour drive north of New Orleans, LA. More info on that event later as updates occur.

Moogie's Store drew in a lot of folks from both the region and, for the first time, was open to the public visiting the Museum. After lunch at the Museum Cafe and a trip through the gift shop it was back to the hotel room for a nap and preparations for the evening banquet and awards.

The banquet offered a reasonable variety of delights which included roast chicken, pulled lemon-essence pork, rice, snap beans, salad and, dessert. The awards presentations went well and the DaVinci received the Overseas Coupon (OCP) Award again this year. My personal thanks to all who contributed to this wonderful program for our Soldiers overseas.

After the banquet and awards were completed, everyone drove back to the hotel and congregated in their various relaxation modes prior to calling it a night, knowing that daylight savings time enters in on Sunday morning and we all will lose an hour of precious sleep. We'll see what Sunday morning brings.

OK, Sunday brought with it the usual breakfast buffet and it was off to MOSI for the Interdenominational service which unfortunately, did not happen because the MOSI staff at the Museum did not have the rooms unlocked on time. Other AM panel activity suffered as well but everything got back to normal around 10:30 AM and most of us in attendance went to bid and view the "Pie the Brass" event. The bids went back and forth several times and to my surprise, I won the bid and got to toss the pie into the smiling face of our very own Commander of Starfleet. They say a picture is worth a thousand words so take a look for your self as the picture is the proof in the pudding (or pie I guess in this case).

Russell pies the Starfleet Commander, Dave Blaser!

The RC was next and our CS got the bid to pie Jack. The pie event sponsor, Alvin Dozier went last and got the highest total individual bids to which another one of our own, Cami's brother James, got to do the honors and overall the pie toss event raised over $300 for the Tampa Bay Ronald McDonald House. Thanks again to Freddy for bringing back the idea at last year's summit; now to become a standard tradition every year in R2.

Closing ceremonies went by with all the thank you and personal acknowledgments attached. Moogie's Store raised over $1500 for the region and the total amount presented to the Ronald McDonald House was $500. Everyone said their goodbyes and we packed up what was left of the store items in the car and those of us that would not be headed back home until Monday, Diane and myself included, started the "dead dog" activities by lunch together and later to dinner and possibly a movie. Very well then, time for the afternoon recharger nap and you'll hear "the rest of the story" in a few hours.

Those few of us remaining decided to go to dinner and a movie at a tourist center a few minutes drive from our hotel. The area was a renovated section of an abandoned portion of the township filled with souvenir stores, restaurants, and of course the movie theater. We watched the movie "Battle Los Angeles" which in my review was a combined cross section of "Independence Day" and "War of the Worlds" with a bit of "Blackhawk Down" added into it. After the movie we had a slice of pizza at one of the local shops and headed back to the hotel

Packed and loaded for the trip home the Captain's yacht departed Planet Tampa around 11:00 AM Monday morning and made it home to the DaVinci shuttle bay around 9:30 PM that evening. We had to make several stops on the way home for souvenirs, of course! Make your plans now to attend next year's combined R2/R3 Summit-Louisiana in March 2012.

The Columbus Cottonmouth's Hockey Team held a "Sci-Fi" night on Friday, 18 March 2011 at the Columbus Civic Center which featured several vendors and many assorted persons displaying their costumed talents for the hockey game goers. The DaVinci was there with a membership drive table and we spoke to several prospects, including one hockey fan dressed with a Starfleet Academy hockey jersey and feline makeup.

A prospective new member dressed in a Starfleet Academy hockey jersey!

Russell and Joe at the Cottonmouth Sci-Fi Night.

The sponsors gave us a pair of complementary tickets to the game of which Diane and myself attended thru the end of the first period. I was excited because this was my first ever hockey game but I couldn't stay for the entire game because of work early the next morning. Many thanks and much appreciation to my "number one" Joe Perry for attending and bringing the membership table display and to Diane and Todd for their attendance.

SECOND THOUGHTS

Hello, this will be a brief introduction. My name is Joseph Perry. I had previously served as XO for the DaVinci until Russell won the last election. The position has since been changed to an appointed position. With Freddy stepping down as our captain, I once again find my self in the XO chair. I have been a member of Starfleet since Jan 1989, and have been a member of the DaVinci since it started. I have recently retired from Columbus State University as the Oracle Database Administrator.

I started playing World of Warcraft several years ago and am now doing a monthly column on the game. I just submitted my eighth column on WoW; this is a personal record since previously I was good for two to three columns a year. I will try to submit more frequently but don't bet the farm. I just recently attended a Star Trek convention in San Francisco; met several celebrities that I had not seen before, had a great time, and spent way too much money. Freddy suggested that I write about that convention, but I find that I need more time to collect my thoughts. This is the main reason that I do not write more often. See everybody at the next Night Out.

AWAY MISSION

The Georgia Renaissance Festival for this year is on Saturdays and Sundays, including Memorial Day from Saturday, April 16, 2011 thru Sunday, June 5, 2011, 10:30 AM – 6:00 PM each day rain or shine. This multi-acre kingdom is a re-creation of a 16th Century European Country Faire where you can shop, eat (oh yes, the food), and revel with a cast of nearly 1000 colorfully costumed characters. Ten stages of music and comedy shows are set against a permanent backdrop of Tudor homes and enchanting cottages. You can even attend the festival in your own renaissance costume if you like. Diane & I will be dressed for the occasion.

I am planning an away mission for this wonderful event on opening day, Saturday, 16 April. The reason for this date is that tickets are available at the buy one-get one free price of $19.95. That only about $10 per person, which is a great deal at any price for this event. You can purchase tickets on-line if you wish by going to the web site at:

www.garenfest.com. We will provide a central location for everyone to meet once the date gets closer and we know for sure how many of you will be attending. If you do plan to attend, please email me at: trekchristian@gmail.com so I get an idea of the total. We may be able to car pool if that's what you wish to do. Also, if you are going by yourself, I need to know so we can work out a buy one-get one free ticket purchase with another single attendee and you will only have to pay $10 instead of the regular $19.95 single price. Tickets at the buy one-get one free price can only be purchased on line. If you get your ticket at the gate you will have to pay full price.

Please be sure to contact me so I can get a total count no later than Friday, 8 April. I hope you will join us!

GAME MASTER

This month I will be covering some of the flavor npcs in the game. When you create a toon, it will have access to a bank when it arrives in the nearest capital city. If you have a bank, then you must have bankers. Stormwind City has recently expanded their banking services. There used to be one bank with a set of three bankers. In the last expansion, 3 additional bankers were added to the original bank and the second bank was added with 6 bankers. These are the bankers in Stormwind City.

The Burnside family: Olivia, Newton, and John (the original banking family). The Westmill family: Kirsten, Scott, and Thomas (new tellers in the original bank). The Wainwright family: Leslie, Ann, and Warren. The Crester family: Jamie, Lee and Curtis (both families in the new bank in the Dwarven District).

Over in the Undercity (the Forsaken capital city), the bank is run by the Montague family: Mortimer, Randolph, Ophelia, and William, the first names come from the movie 'Trading Places'.

The archaeology trainer in Stormwind City is Harrison Jones (a combination if Indiana Jones and Harrison Ford).

The cooking trainer is Steven Ryback (Steven Seagal and Casey Ryback)

Next to Steven Ryback is the cooking supplies vendor Erika Tate (Erica Eleniak and Jordan Tate).

If you are traveling in the Cathedral District, you may come across Lil Timmy. He is selling a white kitten companion. He father requires him to sell the kitten, Timmy does not understand because he does not know the meaning of the word 'allergic'.

Two children that you might encounter are Donna and her brother William. In the last expansion, you would find Donna chasing William because William stole Donna's doll, Betsy. William should have played nicer, because now he is chasing Donna, because she stole his mechanical gorilla.

You might come across 3 young mage trainees, sometimes one of the will comment "But wouldn't that mean crossing the streams? Isn't that really bad?"

There may be others, but this will give you an idea of the scope of the 'flavor' npcs.

If you have any questions then e-mail me or mention them at the night out and I will try to answer then in the next column.

ANNIVERSARY PARTY

The DaVinci held its 15th anniversary party on the 19th of March. We had a great turnout as 24 DaVinci personnel and guests invaded the Heller house for pizza, homemade macaroni and cheese, homemade cole slaw, chocolate cake, peanut butter pie (sorry Lisa), Hershey's cream pie, and ice cream! I would like to thank Bill, Barbara, and Kelly from the USS Robins, who traveled from Warner Robins, GA to celebrate our 15th anniversary.

After everyone had their fill of pizza and dessert the official change of command ceremony took place when I relinquished command of the DaVinci to Russell. Russell and I stood a few feet apart as I read the orders from Starfleet Headquarters. Once read the obligatory words, "Sir, I relieve you" said by Russell, followed by "I stand relieved", said by myself.

Then a big surprise followed. Russell read a certificate of promotion from Starfleet making me a full Admiral! Russell even presented me with my new pips! I knew that Russell had put me in for promotion but he told me later that no Flag promotions were handed out at the Summit and since his promotion did not go through I believed him. Check out some of the pictures below:

"I stand relieved."

Russell reads the certificate of promotion while a very shocked Freddy and the new DaVinci XO Joe looks on.

Of course what is a promotion without the appropriate badge of office. Russell surprised me with a hat and saber! Check it out!

“Arrg, ye swabbies! Ready to walk the plank!”

Of course Russell was not quite through. I also received a Meritorious Commendation award and Connie received a Meritorious Service Award for all her hard work (and putting up with me) for the last 16 years.

Connie shows her Meritorious Service award she received with Joe and Russell.

“ARRG! Time to walk the plank, lassie!”

Freddy shows his Meritorious Commendation award he received with Joe and Russell.

Once all the hoopla died down it was time for the door prize drawings. Thanks to the generosity of Russell we had quite a few items to give away. Congratulations to the following: Timmy (McCoy action figure); Anthony (Scotty action figure); Margaret (Chekov action figure); Lech (DVDs); John (Sulu action figure); Park (set of Star Trek Burger King Glasses); Joe (Uhura action figure); Barbara (Nero action figure); and Kelly (Pike action figure).

I would like to send out a BIG Bajoran thanks to all who attended our anniversary party. And an extra special thanks to the folks from the USS Robins who made the trip down to help us celebrate. Thanks Bill, Barbara, and Kelly!

USS DAVINCI IN PHOTOS

The following is a trip down the USS DaVinci memory lane. Each month I will show a series of photographs from our very beginning, as the Shuttle DaVinci, up until the present time. Many of you will remember these faces. To others they will be complete strangers. But, they made what the USS DaVinci is today. Enjoy! Reminisce. If you have any photographs that you would like to see published in the Pilot, feel free to send them to me with a brief explanation as to who is in the photo and when and where it was taken.

FINALLY!

Go back and check when your membership on the DaVinci and or Starfleet expires. Several memberships have or are near expiring! Please renew as soon as possible or you might not get a newsletter.

Many folks have been asking about DaVinci t-shirts and polo shirts. If you are interested please send Freddy the following: what shirt you want, how many of each, and what size(s). As soon as I get enough orders I will place an order. As for cost, I will not know that until the order is placed but to hazard a guess, I would say $12-$15 for the t-shirts and $25 - $30 for the polo's depending on size.

For Sale: Hundreds of Star Trek, Star Wars, and other miscellaneous female action figures. Low prices! The more you buy the more you save. Call or email Freddy for a complete list!

For Sale: Miscellaneous Star Trek items. Comics, magazines, commercial items, toys, you name it I probably have it! Low prices. Call or email Freddy for a complete list!

For Sale: If you have been to Freddy and Connie's house you probably noticed the large collection of Liberty Falls houses. Well, they are for sale! Check with Connie for your needs.

Autographs: Looking for that certain autographed photograph of your favorite Star Trek or other sci-fi personality? Check with Freddy. He just may have what you need.

DaVinci Slideshow: The new DaVinci slideshow is now available. It has been burned onto DVD+R discs, which play in nearly all DVD players. The price is $5.00 apiece. There are also historical discs (old leftovers) available for only $1.00 apiece, in varying formats. See or call Connie for more info!

Want to put an ad in the Pilot? Just send it to me and it will go in. Does not matter what it says – wanted, for sale, or something more personal! Deadline is the 20th of each month.

SPECIAL ITEM FOR SALE!!!

What you are looking at is a Lego Star Wars display that was in Toys R Us. The display is 47 inches in length, 16 inches wide, and 18 inches in height! It is quite nice and is currently sitting in my house if you wish to look at it. I am asking $375 for the display, which is very reasonable since just the ship in the second photo was going for over $160.00 on eBay! All the money from the sale will go into the DaVinci treasury. So, if you are a Star Wars fan or know someone who is, let them know about this one of a kind item! In fact, any DaVinci member who recommends a buyer that purchases the display will get 10% of the sale price! Please feel free to give out my email address and telephone number.
