UPCOMING EVENTS!

04 June, Away Mission to See "X-Men First Class"; Time TBA and dinner at

18 June, Away Mission to see "Green Lantern"; Time TBA

20 June, Night Out at CiCi's Pizza (Whittlesey Road Location), 7:00 PM

IT'S THE CAPTAIN CALLING

It is always delightful to gather with our fellow crewmembers for the away missions that are made available. On Saturday, May 7, Joe, Randy, Sandy, Diane, and I went to see the movie, "Thor," in BIG 3D. Although I did not notice any spectacular 3D effects in the movie, some of the others did and overall I would recommend the movie to anyone else. I personally thought that maybe the producers could have centered a bit more on Thor style action; however, it was an enjoyable event to be sure. One must stay beyond the ending and credits to see a glimpse of future movie insights since my understanding is that all the Marvel superhero movies are being shown to get the viewers charged up for an upcoming "Avengers" movie coming out at a date TBA. Our next movie away mission will be to see "X-Men: First Class, on Saturday, June 4 for the regular 2D showing, which will be less expensive for everyone. I would also like to arrange for dinner prior to the movie at the Chinese Buffet across from Lowe's if ya'll are interested. Additional emails will follow as this date draws closer.

Elections for ship's captain are coming up soon. All of those members eligible to run for the position should have received an email from Freddy regarding the nomination process. Once the candidates who accept nomination have done so, then the election will take place in June and Freddy will tally the votes. The nominee who wins the election will sit in the captain's chair for a period of 2 years and has the privilege of selecting his/her second officer (the XO) as long as that crewmember has completed OTC and OCC from the Starfleet Academy. I have already accepted nomination and send best wishes to all who decide to run. (OK, Freddy, the Latinum will be on your desk by Monday....what was that?....4 bars per vote....I thought we agreed on 3!!!) LOL!

I am still looking for suggestions from ya'll about other away missions we can possibly partake in throughout the summer months and during the whole year. Some events that come to my mind are activities like a trip to Andersonville, a Water Park adventure, Six Flags, the Confederate Naval Museum, the Infantry Museum, just to name a few. Send your suggestions to: trekchristian@gmail.com.

First an apology, then a thought. I must apologize for dropping the ball on the annual Sweet Tooth Party this year. Several of you had mentioned this event and I just plain got a bit of the "old-timer's" and forgot. Please forgive my forgetfulness.

Now as a thought, some of you have mentioned about getting a DaVinci polo or T-Shirt. I plan on checking with the folks that produce these shirts to verify availability and cost, with an additional thought of possibly making T-Shirts available in the ship section color of your choice, i.e. red, blue, or gold. I'll have to know about shirts as soon as possible since it appears as if the supplier is planning on selling out the business and there is currently a large for sale sign posted for the building site at the roadway.

Live long and prosper and until next issue, warp speed ahead!

RADM Russell Ruhland

GAME MASTER

This month I will be talking about the secondary attributes. These attributes are obtained from gear, enchants, and gems. As with the primary attributes, not all classes will be able to use all the secondary attributes. To prevent over-inflating the required amounts of these attributes, several of them are converted to a percent increase based on your level. The secondary attributes are hit, critical strike, haste, attack power, block, dodge, parry and mastery.

Hit Rating is a very important attribute and will be covered in greater detail in future columns.

Critical Strike Rating will also be covered in a future column. How critical strike and hit work is dependent on your class.

Haste rating is one of the attributes that are converted to a percentage based on your level. This changes the attack speed of your weapons. Faster attack speed may be beneficial or not depending on your current weapon attack speed. This is one of the attributes that use more complicated math. I will elaborate in a future column.

Attack Power changes how much damage is done by your attacks. There is both ranged attack power and melee attack power. All classes have abilities to get attack power from a specific primary attribute. Attack Power used to be found on items, but that was removed in a patch.

The next three attributes are the avoidance attributes. Their purpose is to allow you to avoid some or all of the damage from a successful attack. Block Rating is converted to a chance to block the attack, avoiding some of the incoming damage. You can only block if you have a shield equipped, therefore many classes will never block and should not have any block rating on their toon.

Parry and Dodge are also converted to a percentage. Both of these attributes are also subject to diminishing returns. As more rating is provided by your gear choices, the amount of rating needed to gain an additional percent will increase. Parry required that you have a weapon equipped, there are some mobs that have a disarm ability. When under this de-buff, you will be unable to parry an incoming attack. Unlike block, both parry or dodge are all or nothing effects. If successful, you will not take any incoming damage.

The last secondary attribute is mastery. This is a new attribute that was added in order to simplify the weapon attribute choices. Mastery will give you an effect based on you chosen class and spec, How much mastery that you need, will also depend on you class and specialization.

If you have any questions then e-mail me or mention them at the night out and I will try to answer then in the next column.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Many of you may not realize that the USS DaVinci is not only a club for fans of sci-fi, but we are also a community service organization. Here are some of the things we do for Columbus and beyond. I hope you can help out in any of these worthwhile projects.

Overseas Coupon Project

Our oldest charity (since 1995) is the Overseas Coupon Project (OCP). OCP benefits the Military families of Soldiers stationed overseas who do not have access to manufacturer's coupons for use in the commissary. For most of the past 15 years or so, the DaVinci has always been the top chapter in Region 2 for amount of coupon donations. Since 1995 we have donated nearly $684,000 worth of coupons to the OCP. If you wish to help out, cut out the coupons from the Sunday paper, divide them into food and non-food items, and total the amount in each pile. Please do not exceed $500 in each pile. Turn them in to me at your convenience. Oh, the manufacturer's will extend the expiration date by 6 months to any coupon going overseas so please count expired coupons in your total. Thanks.

Adopt-A-Highway

Another of our older services (since 1997) is our participation in the adopt-a-highway participation. It has been a while since we last cleaned up our section of highway and participation has not been that great. Still, it is a worthwhile community service effort. Our section is the Blackmon Road/Schomburg Road exit off the J.R. Allen Parkway. We are responsible for the exit and entrance ramps on both sides of Schomburg and Blackmon Roads but not the streets that connect the two. Look for a cleaning schedule coming soon.

Starfleet Stampede

What could be easier than cutting out the cancelled stamps on all the mail you receive? We collect these cancelled stamps and send them to Starfleet, which in turn sells them to stamp dealers. The funds collected are used for the various Starfleet charities. So, how about starting to clip those cancelled stamps and bring them to whenever the DaVinci gets together.

Ronald McDonald House

One of our most recent (since 2002) charities is the Ronald McDonald House (RMH) in Columbus. We spend all year collecting the tabs off canned items (pop, soup, pet food, etc) and turn them in to the Ronald McDonald House each January at our annual Tab Turn-In and Pie Party. The RMH uses the tabs collected to pay for their utilities. For several years running, tabs have paid for 100% of the RMH utility bills! This is amazing considering how large their building is and how many tabs it takes to paid for all the gas, electric, and water they use. Since 2002 we have donated over 721,000 tabs! A million tabs is not that far off so start saving those tabs today. In addition to tabs, we have donated items the RMH uses in its everyday operation; items such as light bulbs, computer paper, cleaning supplies, paper towels, and much more.

Trauma Buddy

Thanks to a great donation of hundreds and hundreds of small stuffed animals, the DaVinci is in the process of finding organizations that could use some cuddly creatures in their everyday operation. So far we have donated 100 to the Ronald McDonald House, 100 to the Pediatric wing of the Medical Center, and 100 to the Pediatrics Department of the Druid City Hospital Medical Center in Tuscaloosa, AL. Next up are all the Fire Stations in the Columbus, Phenix City, Fort Benning area (they use them to calm ambulatory children).

Speaking of turn-ins here are some photos from our first two Trauma Buddy donations. Check it out.

The crew poses again, with Pediatric Nurses, at the Trauma Buddy presentation at the Medical Center (Freddy in the rear and Joe, Connie, and Ariana are seated in front).

I hope you can make it to future Trauma Buddy presentations. I will keep you informed as to when and where the next turn-in will be.

ADM Freddy Heller

PASSAGES

William Campbell, who portrayed the god-like child Trelane and Klingon warrior Koloth on the original Star Trek, has passed away at the age of 84. Campbell died at the Motion Picture and Television County Home and Hospital in Woodland Hills, CA following a long illness.

Campbell made his debut to the Star Trek universe in the 1967 original series episode “The Squire of Gothos” as Trelane, a powerful yet puerile being who turned out to be nothing more than a spoiled child.

He was one of the three core original series Klingons to appear in the Deep Space Nine episode “Blood Oath;” the others were Kor, played by the late John Colicos, and Kang, played by Michael Ansara.

Campbell also played Koloth in the video game Star Trek: Judgment Rites, but, unlike Colicos’ Kor and Ansara’s Kang, he did not appear in any subsequent Star Trek episodes.

Campbell as Trelane in the TOS Episode “The Squire of Gothos”

Cambell as CPT Koloth in the TOS Episode “The Trouble with Tribbles”

Campbell had supporting roles in several classic films, including Operation Pacific (1951), Escape from Fort Bravo (1953), The High and the Mighty (1954), Battle Cry (1955), The Naked and the Dead (1958), and Hush... Hush, Sweet Charlotte (1964). He also co-starred in Elvis Presley’s first feature, 1955’s Love Me Tender, becoming the first actor to ever sing with Presley in a motion picture. One of his few leading roles was in the Roger Corman-produced 1963 cult horror-thriller Dementia 13, which was the first film directed by Francis Ford Coppola.

Star Trek was not the last time Campbell worked with series creator Gene Roddenberry; one of his last features was the 1971 caper comedy Pretty Maids All in a Row, which Roddenberry wrote and produced. This film also reunited Campbell with TOS regular James Doohan.

Additionally, Campbell appeared on screen on such TV shows as Perry Mason, Gunsmoke, Bonanza, The Streets of San Francisco, Quincy, M.E., and Ironside. He retired from acting in 1996; his appearance on Deep Space Nine was one of his last two acting jobs.

Campbell is survived by his wife of nearly 50 years, Tereza.

TABULATIONS

Our goal for 2011 will be the same as for 2010, 130,000 tabs!

As always, the top tabber gets to pie both the Captain and his Number One! But that is not all! For anyone reaching 5,000 tabs, they will get to pie one member of the Senior Staff!

Hey! The year is almost half over and we are way short of our goal! Come on folks, start saving those tabs!

USS DAVINCI IN PHOTOS

The following is a trip down the USS DaVinci memory lane. Each month I will show a series of photographs from our very beginning, as the Shuttle DaVinci, up until the present time. Many of you will remember these faces. To others they will be complete strangers. But, they made what the USS DaVinci is today. Enjoy! Reminisce. If you have any photographs that you would like to see published in the Pilot, feel free to send them to me with a brief explanation as to who is in the photo and when and where it was taken.

The Crew digs in at our 7th annual 4th of July cookout! Pictured are: (L-R) Randy, Josh, Renee, Frazier, Joe, Gisela, and Rebecca. (09 July 2005)

Bill, Barbara, Roger, and Faye enjoying the burgers and hotdogs.

Mike Henigan from the Republic chants with Bill while wife Barbara looks on (Bill and Barbara are now members of the USS Robins)

The crew chatting Trek over a good meal!

Josh, Randy, and Russell wait their turn for the abundance of food!

Meanwhile, in the kitchen sit Joe, Gisela, Margaret, and Connie.

And in the dining room are (L-R) Kelly, Mike, Ashley, Mandy, Frazier, Todd, and Davy Crockett, well Russell actually!

Our late, but never forgotten, friend and brother Roger with then girlfriend Faye.

SPECIAL ITEM FOR SALE!!!

What you are looking at is a Lego Star Wars display that was in Toys R Us. The display is 47 inches in length, 16 inches wide, and 18 inches in height! It is quite nice and is currently sitting in my house if you wish to look at it. I am asking $375 for the display, which is very reasonable since just the ship in the second photo was going for over $160.00 on eBay! All the money from the sale will go into the DaVinci treasury. So, if you are a Star Wars fan or know someone who is, let him or her know about this one of a kind item! In fact, any DaVinci member who recommends a buyer that purchases the display will get 10% of the sale price! Please feel free to give out my email address and telephone number.
