IT'S THE CAPTAIN CALLING

I must say, January 2012 will be a month to remember in USS DaVinci history. One Saturday, 14 January, we followed in the wonderful tradition of our annual tab collection turn-in to the Ronald McDonald House in Columbus, GA. Just prior to the turn-in though, a few of the crew gathered at Ryan's for breakfast. It was then on to the Ronald McDonald House where Freddy, Lech, Jessie, and I presented to the Ronald McDonald House the 130,000 tabs. This had always been a joyous event and according to the ship's calculations, if we are able to collect 155,000 tabs this year; the USS DaVinci will have donated, since 2002, a total of 1,000,000 tabs!!! Now is the time to start getting those tabs turned in for this year, so tell your neighbors, tell your friends, tell your relatives, sell your house (LOL... not really!) and let's achieve this milestone at warp speed.

Joe, Jessie, Lech, and Steve at Ryan's.

And Freddy, Jessie, Russell, Lech at the tab turn-in.

A hot Breakfast and the tab turn-in did not end the day's activities! At 2:00 PM the crew came together at Freddy's house for the pie party. After everyone had arrived it was pizza time in the way of Papa John's and I must say it was mighty tasty. Once we had settled from our meal Freddy proceeded to auction off three of the pies since Jeff, the top tabber, and Karen P. were not able to attend the festivities. To our surprise we received $60.00 for the DaVinci treasury with a $35.00 bid from Jessie for my pie, a $15.00 bid from Todd for Cami's pie, and a $10 bid from new member Ray for Jonathan's pie! We really tried to get Freddy to volunteer to receive a pie since he was the CO for 3 months last year but to no avail. Anyway, there were 4 new victims, err, I mean pie-ees and, of course, with yours truly it made 5 pies total. We decided to go from the bottom up the chain of command and Jonathan was first. His friend, Ray took full advantage of the precious plate of delightful whipped cream and with careful aim - POW, a bull's-eye! Next in line was Lech and he graciously stood at attention as the pie expertly delivered by Freddy, hit its mark right on target. Joe was victim number 3 as he boldly accepted his token pie from Connie. By the way, just an added note that Joe has recently celebrated his 21st year as a member of Starfleet! Way to go, Joe. Ok, my fearless number one, Cami was 4th up the chain and as the proud mother that she is, not only received her pie in the official fashion from Todd, but allowed her 3 beautiful daughters to pie her, giving some added humor to the event. The girls each took their turn with the leftovers of the pie and made their mark upon mom with great love and laughter. Finally, it was my turn and Jessie came to the plate with the precision of a professional ballplayer and it was ready... aim...FIRE! The pie landed in my face like a photon torpedo blast and I withstood the explosion with shields at 100% and got a good laugh myself. Good job, Jessie. Okay folks here are the photographs you have been dying to see. There are no captions, as they need no explanation!

After the staff was all cleaned up we sat around the living room and had a wonderful time of fellowship. Freddy had a door prize drawing for some Star Wars glasses and the winner was Ariana who Freddy was sure would not want them but eagerly accepted the prize and went quickly back to her room! We talked with one another for a bit longer and then departed our separate ways for the evening. I wish to express my own personal thanks to my senior staff for their willing participation and of course to all of the crew that donated tabs throughout 2011 and those who were present at the pie party. Here is to an even more successful 2012 and 155,000 tabs or bust!

Ariana shows her Star Wars door prize.

Lech, Cami, and Joe lounging around.

The January Night Out at McCallister's Deli was the place to be and we definitely used some space as 15 DaVinci crew members and their guests were in attendance. This restaurant has a rather impressive menu and I decided to have a chef salad, which by the way was dee-licious, even though I had a bit of a rough time eating out of a slanted bowl. We had three guests with us this night and if memory serves me correctly, 2 of them joined the DaVinci during dinner. Welcome to the crew Ray and Don! The evening proceeded with abundant conversations going on in every direction and when the free meal drawing was held the lucky winner was Sandye! We all headed home around 8:30 with full bellies and full friendship as always.

Joe, Martha, and Jeff wait to be seated.

Connie and Joe enjoy their food.

The "boss" and his "boss" in their new shirts!

Sandye and Randy enjoy their dinner.

Margaret and Lech at the Night Out.

Jessie and new member Don at the table.

Finally, I am currently planning a February “Sweethearts” movie away mission to see Journey 2: The Mysterious Island on Saturday, 18 February. I have chosen the weekend after the premiere so that we don’t run into a sold-out situation as we did as one event last year. Of course, if your sweetheart cannot attend we understand completely; come by yourself anyway; we don’t want to leave anyone out. Attendance will be scheduled for a matinee and dinner afterwards at the Country’s BBQ across from Lowe’s. Let’s not forget that along with our movie nights usually comes a special giveaway of some type; maybe about Valentine’s Day, or maybe not, but definitely a special prize of some type for one or two that attend the event. I will provide more information as the date gets closer. Looking forward to seeing many of you attend.

RADM Russell Ruhland

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Greetings Officers and Crew Mates!

Recently a call for help came out from friends of mine. They posted on Facebook that their neighbor’s house went up in flames. They asked if anyone could help out. I responded by sending out emails with a copy of the original message for help. Here is the message from PattandJoni ( that’s my friends FB name):

“OK Facebook friends...it's time to show some love to those in need. Our neighbor's house burned last night and I have some sizes for clothes. They need man's 36x30 pants, L-XL shirts and size 10 shoes. There is a woman and 2 grown daughters that live there as well. The mother needs size 20 pants and 22 tops and size 9.5-10 shoes. The daughters need size 22 pants and tops and size 8 and 11 shoes. All they have right now are the clothes they are wearing. If you would like to donate money, you can contact me at 706-366-0607 to make a donation. Thanks in advance for all your help!”

I want to take this time to thank Mr. Russell and Mr. Freddy for sending out a mass E-mail to get the word out and Dr. Hal Stewart for sending me some information that can aid the family and all those who have read the mass E-mail and prayed for this family, A big thank you goes out to you! From what Pastor Pat Gilbert told me over the phone, the family lost everything, but is thanking God the family was safe. I have yet to find out more on the family but as soon as I get word I will know. If you want to help out further please call Pastor Pat at the number above.

Do not forget the clean up of our Adopt-a-Highway site scheduled for Saturday, 28 January at 10:00 AM. We will meet at the intersection of Blackmon Road and the East entrance to the J.R. Allen Parkway. It should not take more than an hour or so to do the work. Perhaps after we finish we can go out to lunch to celebrate another successful clean up!!

ENS Jessie Sutton

TABULATIONS

Well, the New Year began with a bang when Tony and Freddy both dropped off a large amount of tabs. But! A short scant of days later Jessie – ah, sweet Jessie – dropped off a slew of tabs knocking the normally happy Freddy from first to second! Humm, maybe this year we will add the Community Service Officer to the list of those getting pied! Anyway, our goal this year is challenging – 155,000 tabs! Why this amount you ask? Well, if we reach that amount we will have donated one million tabs since we began collecting tabs 10 years ago! We can do it! In just a few years ago we reached 156,000 tabs so a thousand less is not unreasonable. Start saving today and help us reach our goal on one million tabs! And what will happen if our goal is reached? Who will get pied? Humm, how about giving me some ideas! Email Freddy and let him know what YOU think. Here are the numbers as of press time:

Starting Balance	101

REGION 2 SUMMIT

The 2012 Region 2 and Region 3 Summits are being combined this year and will be held in Hammond, LA on 16-18 March. Hammond is about 40 miles north of New Orleans and it's about a 6-hour drive from Columbus. So far, Freddy, Joe, Diane, and I are attending with Cami and the girls having tentative plans to attend. Registration and banquet reservations, along with hotel information can be found on the Region 2 website at: www.region2.org. It would be nice to see several more DaVinci members attend this year, as the Summit is a fun-filled event and a time to meet up with good friend. Along with the usual great panels there will be the Saturday night banquet and other activities such as a Great Dalmuti tournament, First Dude's golf tournament, and the Fleet Admiral's dinner on Friday night. You even get a free lunch provided by the hotel on Saturday! What could be better than that?

The following is a trip down the USS DaVinci memory lane. Each month I will show a series of photographs from our very beginning, as the Shuttle DaVinci, up until the present time. Many of you will remember these faces. To others they will be complete strangers. But, they made the USS DaVinci what it is today. Enjoy! Reminiscence. If you have any photographs that you would like to see published in the Pilot, feel free to send them to me with a brief explanation as to who is in the photo and when and where it was taken. If I get a name wrong, please let me know!

The photos below are final photographs from our 9th annual participation in the Help-the-Hooch River cleanup (15 October, 2005).

SPECIAL ITEM FOR SALE!!!

What you are looking at is a Lego Star Wars display that was in Toys R Us. The display is 47 inches in length, 16 inches wide, and 18 inches in height! It is quite nice and is currently sitting in my house if you wish to look at it. I am asking $375 for the display, which is very reasonable since just the ship in the second photo recently went for over $160.00 on eBay!

All the money from the sale will go into the DaVinci treasury. So, if you are a Star Wars fan or know someone who is, let him or her know about this one of a kind item! In fact, any DaVinci member who recommends a buyer that purchases the display will get 10% of the sale price! Please feel free to give out my email address and telephone number.
