TREK ★ OR ★ TREAT

COSPLAY & CRAFTS

It's that time of year again. Yes, That time! When you can dress up in your Trekkie Finest without getting weird looks from the neighbors. For those who want to dress up, but don't have want to spend money on high-quality Star Trek outfits, here's something from the affordable DIY cosplay archives. Perfect for children and folks with limited budgets.

This Klingon warrior DIY costume from The Woodland Elf will let you uphold your family honor as you patrol the neighborhood in search of candy. (What? You're never too old for Trick-Or-Treat'ing. Don't look at me like that.)

The full tutorial video can be found here:

<https://thewoodlandelf.com/klingon-diy-klingon-costume/>

Materials Used:

- ½ yard Faux Black Fur
- 5 sheets 3mm Craft Foam (silver or gray)
- 4" x 5" piece of 5mm thick Craft Foam
- 4" wide Black Vinyl, Long enough to fit around your waist (for the belt)
- Old Black Shirt
- Black Pants
- Black Boots/Shoes
- Paper Fasteners ( )
- 4 Snaps
- Metallic Gray Paint (acrylic)
- Hot Glue Gun
- Scissors
- Sewing Machine or Needle & Thread

The costume is easy to make. Even a crafting novice should be able to produce a recognizable Klingon outfit. But you'll also want that iconic bat'leth to carry around with you to fight off the wandering specters come Halloween night.

Bat'leth Tutorial video can be found here:

WELL WISHES

Charles Koone suffered hospitalization for a heart condition at the end of September. Two stints and a change in diet later, he's doing well. Please keep him in your thoughts as he completes his recovery. (On a totally unrelated note, people who can't eat fat or salt are crabby.)
